ABOUT EAST SILVER

EAST SILVER MARKET – OCT 25 – 31, 2010

East Silver is the only market which supports producers and distributors from Central and East Europe. Each year, about 350 films from more than 29 countries submit to the project and are considered for the market. The project is implemented in cooperation with of IDFF Jihlava (www.dokument-festival.cz) and the Institute of Documentary Film (www.dokweb.net).

East Silver 2010 and the East European Forum will form the industry section of the 14th Jihlava International Documentary Film Festival October 25 - 31, 2010.

ONLINE CATALOGUE AND DATABASE – essential referral spot for Eastern European docs

Printed catalogue distributed to over 500 hundred film professionals is mirrored in form of easy to navigate on-line database at www.eastsilver.net. Eastern European documentary current production gathered at one place creates searchable up-to-date archive of titles with full film credits and trailers.

EAST SILVER TV FOCUS - designed to enhance and increase documentary TV broadcast

We aim to widen the chances for TV broadcast of documentary films from our region. So in addition to our activities, we are now launching new service for producers, international documentary networks and TV buyers. Gaining substantial knowledge of broadcaster's slots and also current programming needs, we individually select and recommend particular documentaries directly to the international TV stations and networks. With personal approach we make individual selection and recommend particular film titles from our large database, custom made to fit the TV slot, or to the actual needs of current programming.

EAST SILVER CARAVAN - supporting tool for festival and market screenings of documentaries

East Silver Caravan promotes East European documentary films at the most important international documentary film festivals and markets each year. Travelling showcase of Eastern European documentary can be encountered at the most prestigious international film festivals and markets.

SILVER EYE

Silver Eye is an award for the best documentary of the East Silver Market 2010. Documentaries will be selected from East Silver Market submissions 2010.
